Aldeen Golf Club Selected to Host United States Open Championship Qualifier in 2014

April 22, 2008

Aldeen Golf Club has been selected by the Chicago District Golf Association to host a United States Open Championship Sectional Qualifying Tournament. The U.S. Open Sectional Qualifier will be held in June of 2014.

Duncan Geddes, PGA Professional at Aldeen Golf Club, explained, "Sectional qualifying is the final stage in the qualifying process for the U.S. Open. The site for the U.S. Open in 2014 will be announced later this year, but this sectional to be held at Aldeen Golf Club in Rockford is a qualifying event that will draw the top amateur and professional golfers in the country, including many PGA Tour, Nationwide Tour, and foreign tour professionals. This is another highly prestigious event for Aldeen Golf Club to have the honor of hosting."

Aldeen Golf Club has been recognized as one of the top fifty public golf courses in the United States one can play for under $50 by GOLF Magazine, and was awarded 4 ½ stars by Golf Digest Magazine in 2004. Aldeen Golf Club & Practice Centre is owned and managed by the Rockford Park District, and is located at 1902 Reid Farm Road, Rockford, Illinois.
